

WRECKED! But Positively Not Bankrupt!

Eighty-foot wall to be torn out by the Hub, 1914's most powerful People's Bargain Sale, opens at 17-19 East First St. Monday at 8:00 a. m. Sharp

TO THE PUBLIC

Our lot of goods given by lease and bonds and this popular department store has become one of the busiest spots of Tulsa. The large eighty-foot wall now separating our Men's and Women's Department has been a great handicap. We have decided to tear out this entire wall—eighty feet in length—install new and modern fixtures and generally remodel the interior of our building. Such an undertaking in a Department Store like this naturally involves a tremendous amount of dirt, dust and confusion and ruins a large amount of high grade merchandise. Therefore we have decided to float our entire stock in the naked walls for what ever it will bring in order to make room for the workmen. Having just concluded an inventory we find we have on hand nearly 100,000 worth of fresh, new, clean, desirable winter merchandise.

And Positively Beginning Monday, January 5th, This Entire Stock Will Be Thrown on the Market at the Mercy of the Public. Sale Continues 14 Days Rain or Shine

Building will be turned over to the workmen January 20th. The contractors have been placed under a heavy bond to complete their work in a stated time. During the progress of these alterations we will be forced to suspend business temporarily. All arrangements have been made to begin this work on January 20th, therefore, we have only fourteen days to sell the entire stock. Every last article must go. While the work on the building is being done our buyers will be at market purchasing the largest stock of spring and summer merchandise ever brought to Tulsa. Bear in mind, we own every dollar's worth of goods within the four walls of this building. It is all paid for. We owe no man a dollar. We are positively NOT BANKRUPT. This is a bonafide Remodeling Sale. History repeats itself. Poplinger Bros. are willing to rise or fall on their past records as publishers of facts.
